

BUMPUS GALLERY EXHIBIT

The sculpture and drawings of Jean and Frank Tock will be exhibited in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library May 18 through June 23. The public is invited to meet the artists at the opening Sunday, May 18, from 4-6.

Well Known

Jean Tock has exhibited in many Boston galleries and in various museums throughout the country. She has created 2 large architectural sculptures in the area, an outdoor sculpture for the Hebrew rehabilitation center in West Roxbury, and an indoor wall at the Apartments for Independent Living in Fall River.

Frank Tock has been exhibited at UMass, the Art Institute of Chicago and, most recently, at the Boston Atheneum.

The Tocks live in Duxbury and Boston. The gallery is open Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5.

Last week we had Brownie ring and then we had a cookie. Then we played sharks and minnows. Then we talked about how to take good care of animals. We made a list of animals that we had. I said a cat but I should of said a raccoon. Some other people said dogs, fish, snakes, frogs, hamsters and Ginny pigs, then we talked about going to a dog kennel. -- Scribe Jenny Smith

Art Exhibition Opens Sunday

DUXBURY — An exhibition of drawings and watercolors by Jean Howard will open Sunday from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library.

The public is invited to meet the artist at the opening. The exhibition will continue through May 14. Gallery hours are from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays and 1 to 5 p.m. on Sundays.

Programs Listed To Mark National Library Week

DUXBURY — The Duxbury Free Library will be recognizing National Library Week 1975, April 13 through 19.

This year the week's programs will feature the role of the library as an information center. Throughout the week there will be continuous displays of how-to books on many subjects including crafts, career planning, and family budgeting.

The reference section will be open for browsing and the reference librarian will be available to anyone wishing to learn more about the many resources.

On Tuesday, the talking books machine, the microfilm reader, and the slide viewer will be set up for demonstration.
